All the achings and the quakings of "tl God be thanked, the light is over!"-Ah, times that tried men's souls:" the grim old soldier's smile! When I talk of Whig and Tory, when I Tell us, tell us why you look so?" (we tell the Rebel story. could hardly speak, we shook so, To you the words are "Are they beaten? Are they beaten? ARI they're burning coals. they bentone "Wait a while

THE BATTLE OF BUNKER HILL.

Memorial Poem by O. W. Holmes.

BUNKER HILL BATTLE:

AS SHE SAW IT FROM THE BELFRY

Tis like stirring living embers when,

eighty, one remembers

glass grimacing:

Down my hair went as I hurried,

God forbid your ever knowing, wh

there's blood around her flowing,

Of the Corporal, our old neighbor, on the

With a knot of women round him-

was lucky I had found him,

So I followed with the others, as Corporal marched before.

had we tasted,

rampart strode sedately;

commanded on the hill.

we saw his manly figure,

ing out for pleasure.

moving to the piers;

the belted grenadiers.

ing up so straight and tall;

red coats' ranks were forming:

as we looked far down and listened cheer (it seemed faint hearted)

And the reddening, rippling water, as

Round the barges gliding onward blu

ed like blood along their tracks.

knapsacks on their backs,

ter a sea fight's slaughter,

again they formed in order:

The time seemed everlasting to men faint and fasting-

ing proudly up the hill.

along the lines advancing-balls above them flying.

old French war) before-they all were hearing-

the dusty belfry floor:

a 'rebel' falls;

and trepidation

ered into spray.

King George's shillin's, and answer not. -

Now the front rank fires a volley-have thrown away their shot;

would swear sometimes and tipple)-

And his wooden leg thumps fiercely

You may bang the dirt and welc are well nigh breathless all:

they're as safe as Dan'l Malcolm

It was Prescott, one since told

How the lonely helpless daughter bling half-way to my heels;

quiet household feels!

wooden leg he wore,

knew it was the stumping

Memorial:

The following poem, by Dr. O. W. Holmes, is taken from the Bucker Hill

I had heard the musket's rattle of the Oh, the trembling and the terror! for too April running battle: soon we saw our error; Lord Percy's hunted soldiers, I can see They are baffled, not defeated; we have their red coats still; driven them back in vain:

But a deadly chill comes o'er And the columns that were scattered day looms up before me, round the colors that were tattered, When a thousand men lay bleeding on Toward the sullen, silent fortress turned the slopes of Bunker Hill. their belted breasts again.

Twas a peaceful summer's morning, All at once, as we are gazing, lo, the roofs when the first thing gave us warning of Charlestown blazing! Was the booming of the cannon from They have fired the harmless village; in the river to the shore; an hour it will be down!

"Child," says grandma, "what's the mat-The Lord in heaven confound them, rain ter; what is all this noise and clatter? his fire and brimstone round them-Have those scalping Indian devils com The robbing, murdering red-coats, that to murder us once more?" would burn a peaceful town!

Poor old soul! my sides were shaking i They are marching, stern and solemn; we the midst of all my quaking, can see each massive column To hear her talk of Indians when As they near the naked earth-mound with guns began to roar: the slanting walls so steep. She had seen the burning village, and Have our soldiers got faint-hearted the slaughter and the pillage, in noiseless haste departed? When the Mohawks killed her father Are they panic-struck and helpless? Are with their bullets through his door. they palsied or asleep? Then I said, "New, dear old granny, don't Now! the walls they're almo you fret and worry any, scarce a rod the foes asunder!

For I'll soon come back and Not a firelock flashed against them! up whether this is work or play; the earthwork they will swarm! There can't be mischief in it, so But the words have scarce been spoken, be gone a minute"when the ominous calm is broken, For a minute then I started. I was gone And a bellowing crash has emptied all the live-long day. the vengeance of the storm!

No time for bodice-lacing or for looking-So again, with murderons slaughter, pelted backwards to the water, Fly Pigot's running heroes and the frightened braves of Howe: And we shout, "At last they're done for. it's their barges they have run for: They're beaten, beaten, beaten; and the In the street I heard a thamping; and

And we looked, poor timid creatures, on the rough old soldier's features. Our lips afraid to question, but he knew what we would ask:

'Not sure," he said; "keep quiet-once more, I guess they'll try it-Here's damnation to the cut-throa then he handed me his flask,

They were making for the steer le,-the Saying, "Gal, you're looking shaky; have old soldier and his people; a drop of old Jamaiky; The pigeons circled around us I'm afeard there'll be more trouble afore climbed the creaking stair. the job is done;"

Just across the narrow river-oh, So I took one scorching swallow; dread it made me shiver! ful faint I felt and hollow, Stood a fortress on the hill-top that but Standing there from early morning when yesterday was bare.

the firing was begun. Not slow your eyes to find it; well All through those hours of trial knew who stood behind it, Though the earthwork hid them from As the hands kept creeping, creeping and the stubborn walls were dumb,

Here were sister, wife and mother, look When the old man said,"They're forming ing wild upon each other, And their lips were white with terror. It's the death-grip that's a coming-they ther said, THE HOUR HAS COME! will try the works once more.' The morning slowly wasted, not a morsel

With brazen trumpets blaring, the flame behind them glaring, And our heads were almost splitting w The deadly wall before them, in close arthe cannon's deafening thrill. ray they come; When a figure tall and stately ros

Still onward, upward toiling, like a dragon's fold uncoiling-Like the rattlesnake's shrill warning the reverberating drum! Every woman's heart grew bigger when

Over heaps all torn and gory-shall I tell the fearful story, With the banyan buckled round it, stan How they surged above the as a sea breaks over a deck; Like a gentleman of leisure who is str How driven, yet scarce defeated.

worn-out men retreated. Through the storm of shells and can With their powder-horns all empties shot he walked around the wall. like the swimmers from a wreck? At 11 the streets were swarming, for It has all been told and painted; as for At noon in marching order they me, they say I fainted, And the wooden-legged old Corporal stumped with me down the stair. And when I woke from dreams affrighted the evening lamps were lighted-To the trampling and the drum beat On the floor a youth was lying; his bleeding breast was bare. At length the men have started, with And I heard through all the flurry,

'Send for Warren! hurry! hurry! In their scarlet regimentals, with their Tell him here's a soldier bleeding, and he'll come and dress his wound." Ah, we knew not till the morrow told its tale of death and sorrow, How the starlight found him stiffened on the dark and bloody ground. So they crossed to the other border, and

Who the youth was, what his name was, And the boats came back for soldiers. where the place from which he camcame back for soldiers, soldiers still;

and had left him at our door, At last they're moving, marching, march He could not speak to tell us: but t'w one of our brave fellows. As the homespun plainly showed We can see the bright steel glancing all which the dying soldier wore.

For they all thought he was dving, a they gathered round him crying,-For behind their earthwork lying, all the And they said "Oh how they'll mi him!" and, "what will his mother do?" Our people need not hurry; so they wait Then, his eyelids just unclosing like a child that has been dozing, He faintly murmured. "Mothe Then the Corporal, our old cripple (he

-I saw his eves were blue. He had heard the bullets whistle (in the "Why grandma, how you're winking!" -and my child, it sets me thinking Calls out in words of jeering, just as i Of a story not like this one. Well, he somehow lived along; So we came to know each other, and nursed him like a-mother. "Oh! fire away, ye villains, and earn Till, at last he stood before me, rosy-cheeked, and strong.

But ye'll waste a ton of powder before : And we sometimes walked together the pleasant summer weather; "Please to tell us what his name w

-Just your own, my little dear .-Ten foot beneath the gravestone that There's his picture Copley painted: you've splintered with your balls!" became so well acquainted

In the hush of expectation, in the awe That-in short, that's why I'm grandma and you children all are here! Of the dread approaching moment, THE GRASSHOPPERS FORTY-EIGHT O. Cowling,

Though the rotten pars are failing on th YEARS AGO .- In the year of our Lord rickety belfry railing, 1827, forty-eight years ago, the grass We are crowding up against the waves against a wall. Just a glimpse (the air is clearer)-they are nearer,-nearer, When a flash-a curling smoke-wreat -then a crash -the steeple shakes-

The deadly truce is ended: the tempest shroud is rended; Like a morning mist it gathered, like a thunder cloud it breaks! Oh, the sight our eyes discover as blue-black smoke blows over! The red-coats stretched in windre mower rakes his hay; Here a scarlet heap is lying, there a headlong crowd is flying. Like a billow that is broken and is shivMISCELLANY.

Hadn't Jined 'em Yet.

A rather verdant young man, whofeatures exhibited every symptom of Federal and Confederate. As I remarkemerald, lately entered a jewelry store are no longer your dead. They are ours look at?" inquired the merchant. pointing to a plain Masonic pin (the sacred grounds, in the names of the falcompass and square), "how much is that len Braves, wherever they rest; in the "Five dollars, only, sir," was the re- ever found; in the name and by the hope wear about me so folks would hev an the graves of our fallen heroes, and fin-

"Seven dollars, sir," said the merchant and through you, the officers and soldounding the letter G. "Seven dollars, eh!" said the youth, sir, that hereafter the only rivalry that

I'll take it-sorry yer didn't hev the shall exist between us shall be as to who hand-saw, though, but reckon every shall do the most to honor our common easure out the work, and the square to our common fing of our common counsee it's all right after it's done measur- try." ed; and every durned fool orter kvow that G allus stands for gimlet!"-[Ex. ity and manliness of this speech which

The Two Sides of the Face.

one side of the face to fit, line to line, true eloquence ever uttered in modern into the concave cast of the other; but times. it is doubtful if there is to be anywhere An Ingenious Plan for the Preserv- below the balloon. All the clearings to detend at monenschwangau the history doth not say only we know that the found one single head of this ideal perfection. Neither the contour of the cheess nor the lines of the countenance are the same on both sides, and they are general inconvenience arising from 'war the less so because every one uncon. scares' has suggested to an ingenious sciously tends to perform many unnatur- Frenchman a scheme for mitigating, and causes a divergence between the two caused by thus triffing with the peace sides of the face. Besides, the head, of Europe. His plan also has the merit projecting as it does freely into the air, is more dependent than we imagine on who hold that international differences with its number and the arms of its marvellous stories about the royal wind and weather. Suppose a person should be adjusted by the sword, but alphere out of doors, and the other toward the new system there will be both fightfold growth of the facial muscles. One proposes that when two nations growl side of the face might become rounded, and scowl at each other to such an exthe other flat or concave; and though tent as to make the general society of Is this not a picture from the hand of watched a calm clock dial, the other flat or corcave; and though the hands kept creeping, creeping—

they were creeping round to four,

they were creeping round to four,

When the old man said, "They're forming with their bagonets fixed for storming;

When the old man said, "They're forming with their bagonets fixed for storming;

When the old man said, "They're forming with their bagonets fixed for storming;

They are a good illustration of this unequal development. Instance a picture from the name of a master? Many like it I could set be nations uncomfortable, and to agitate in the stock exchanges throughout the Continent in America for me to make further extend the stock exchanges throughout the book is too well known in America for me to make further extend the stock exchanges throughout the book is too well known in America for me to make further extend the stock exchanges throughout the word is the stock exchanges throughout the book is too well known in America for me to make further extend the stock exchanges throughout the word is the stock exchanges throughout the word is the stock exchanges throughout the word is the stock exchanges throughout the word opense of the stock exchanges throughout the stock exchanges throughout the word opense of the stock exchanges throughout the stock exchanges throughout the stock exchanges throughout the stock exchang native land are stunted, so, too, his fea- shall not be called upon to fight out native land are stunted, so, too, his fea-tures become monstrous, irregular, and their quarrel at once, whether prepared finds both word and expression so nat-London. one-sided: the frontal bones are forced, or not for immediate hostilities. In the as though by spasm, down on the max- event of their declining to do so at the illaries, producing the most singular bidding of the court, they are to be Escape From Churchs and Public combinations and contortions of the simultaneously attacked by all the othfeatures. A not uncommon form of or nations, and to bear the whole cost of asymmetry in more favored lands is the the movements against them. It is im-

No Fear of Death in the Dying.

A striking fact in connection with the dying is that they are not afraid of death. You notice this even in executions. The majority of men who are hanged are reported to die "game." Death following disease or injury is with the rarest exceptions, accompan ied with fear. Disease dulls the intelli- ner's Surf House, a portion of the hull pain, and death is looked upon as a re- moving the remains of the vessel to the lief. Nature, by a kindly provision, er, so does the desire for life grows less; recognize again. Among the more constant signs at the failing pulse, which gradually be comes imperceptible first at the wrist and lastly at the breast itself the extremities grow cold; the countenance hanges as the veinous blood courses the arteries; the skin grows clammy as the vessels relax; the eyes glaze; the jaw droops; the fluids accumulate in the windpipe, causing the "death-rattle," so ever tells the whole truth. called, as the air passes through; the breath comes short and finally ceases.

The several physical phenomena, steps. Death offers them a physiogno- ers, until now all that is left of the hismy, which once witnessed, is not hard to toric vessel are her beams and planking.

As the red blood leaves the brain the iudgment becomes obscured, and the going up stairs; coming down he is not senses deficient. Speech is incoherent. so sure of it. Many times "last words" are imagined by affection to mean more than intendd, if there was any intention at all, "It grows dark," or "more light," are common sayings as the optic nerve loses it stimulus. Or strange sights may be seen or sounds heard, as occur some times in the still twi light. The hallucinations of the dying may be often explained upon natural causes .- [Prof. R.

A Model Speech.

There were a few really eloquer mustard profusely, and within fortyeight hours we hadn't a living grassmade in Cincinnati by a quiet and unfuture heaven. They must show now, more than ever, that, by a union of lovkitchen door about 10 o'clock party he based they burst right open from stem to stern, and we shoveled them into large heaps and burned them, and the next year we level of the truest eloquence, when he Zoroaster tried to fight it; this is still limped in the off hind leg. He was about we, too, have sent floral messengers, as it were, to whisper to our fallen braves that they were not forgotten. So far, this has been right and proper; but, sir, the Civil War in America. He is a the time has come to drop the words having been slightly tinged with the ed in your meeting a few days ago, these in New York, and, gazing earnestly into also, but made so by your own generous perfect pictures, which might be signed has at times been shown in a strange e showcase, remarked:

SOMERSET, OHIO: FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1875.

"You've got a heap of mighty pretty is not your flag, but ours, yours and the lights and with the wondrous legendary lore and tucky is said to be of very good quality. It can be a supported to the painters. For instance: "While the with the wondrous legendary lore and tucky is said to be of very good quality. action. That flag we honor and respect breast-pins thar, Mister; what might mine together. A heritage bequeathed two hostile armies observed each other the beautiful poetry it embodies, had an to us by as grand forefathers as ever "What sort of a pin would you like to ok at?" inquired the merchant.
"Well, I dunno?" said the visitor, new life. And now, sir, here, in these sight of the enemy. As soon as we rose of the fal. len Braves, wherever they rest; in the rounded the former residence of Gen. names of the widows and orphans, whereas the view extended over an undulation to the highest joy. When but fifteen and it is not improbable that those who ply. 'It's a very fine pin, eighteen carat of a common nationality, I tender you here and there by little clearings, and of my "Lohengrin," and since then he my hand; and with it the hands and burdered on the west by the long range has belonged to me. He calls me his "You haven't got ary one with a little gold hand-saw hald across it, her you?" this land. Let the thistle that for so interrupted the would be purchaseer. It interrupted the would be purchaseer. It is land. Thanks to the many years has sprung from the graves brilliant light which illumines the last. Through him I am, and understand my-"I believe not, sir," said the mer- of our fallen dead and pierced our bearts hours of an autumn day in America, the self." be now, and forevermore, replaced by "I'm just out of my time, and gwine the violet and the lily. And while todetails of the country which appeared Munich about the King's romantic dito set up as a carpenter and jiner, and I day you tender, and we receive, the olive thought I'd like some sort of a sign to branch, let the heartsense forever deck below us like a map in relief. But in versions. The legend of the Swanwear about me so folks would hev an the graves of our fallen heroes, and in-idee who I was. What do you tax for ally, in the name of the Confederate ally, in the name of the Confederate soldiers of the entire land, I thank you, attention is necessary to discover the guard the young monarch's castle of producing a compass and square sur- iers of this vicinity, for the cordial welters of this vicinity, for the cordial welbody'll understand it. The compass to dead by sustaining and supporting this trees, They multiply by groups and played the music of "Lohengrin." white There is something about the simplicreminds us of the tone of Abraham Lincoln's immortal speech at Gettys-

We should expect the convex cast of burgh; the most perfect specimen of

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "The resence of a dimple on one cheek, probable, however, that they will bring being thus united by a bond of symmutual feeling of antagonism."

Revolutionary Relic. A committee connected with the Centennial Commission has visited Glonces. ter City, where lies in front of Hitch gence so that the situation may not be of the British frigate Augusta, to take Centennial grounds, in Fairmount Park. eems to prepare for the flight of the A history of New Jersey gives the folspirit, as the hold upon life grows weak- lowing facts in the history of this ship: "October 22, 1776, the Augusta, a 64and in scarcely a single instance within gun ship, the Merlin sloop-of-war and my experience, or within that of my four smaller vessels, strove to get within professional brethren, with whom I cannon shot of Fort Mifflin. The two have conversed upon this point, has not first got aground, and were on the next the dying man relinquished life at the day set on fire and abandoned. The last without seeming reluctance or fear. Augusta blew up. ' Some years ago the hull was raised and towed to Gloucester, which, accompanying the act of dying, where it was inclosed and an admission vary considerably in the earlier stages free charge for permission to view it. with the causes which produce death, Of late years it has been exposed to the there is much similarity in the latter ravages of the elements and relic hunt-

A French Solomon to his Son. [From the Paris Charivari.]

Women love but once-shun that Women hate in proportion to their Most women retain their virtue, but many like to risk it. Not all women lie, but Hatred is at the bottom death is at the bottom of life.

One always thinks he is in love whe You cannot impede a woman in her will make an ideal of you which you cannot realize, and which it will grieve

The count of Paris is at work on the concluding volumes of his History of good painter, without overloading his ent of the London Daily News says. that of his arrival at Washington, are "Lohangrin" and the composer thereof vain does the ve seek the apparent Knight has found many homes, and fortifications. However, as the day declines, we see to the south little bluish corded in the old story? Down below lines of smoke, rising gently above the the balcony, where he stood, a band form a vast semicircle. It is the Confederates cooking their supper. You Knight of the Grail" (Prince Taxis) may almost count the roll of their arm, drawn in the boat by a mechanical swan for every smoke betrays the kittle of a of cunning gestures and workmanship. half section. Further off, the steam The boat reached the banks, the Knight of a locomotive flying toward the moun-stepped on shore, and then he sang his tain, traces by a line drawn through the beautiful "farewell" to his feathered forest the railroad which bring the en-where we sought in vain to discover the King was delighted. Federal camp, are filled by a throng clothing of the thought, and the expresurally that he seems never to have searched for it.- [Arson Houseane.

lishing reports on the condition of pubwhile the other has no such indentation matters to this pass by refusing to fight lic halls and churches in Baltimore, or but a very faint one. In such cases when desired to do so; for it may be with respect to the opportunities they the face has, as it it were, a summer and taken for granted that they would ina winter side, just like the apple, which finitely prefer a sanguinary tussle with of a disaster such as recently occurred "Lohengrin," which had always been is round and ruddy on its summer side, each other to being together engaged in the church at Holyoke, Massachubut on the shade side flattened and wan. in defending themselves against an attack of the whole cizilized world, and large number of the churches and pubpathy totall, at variance with their a terror-stricken audience would be uning the doors of public buildings to be fully comprehended; or there may be into consideration the possibility of reand so it should be as to all such buildings everywhere.

Utilizing Sifk Rags.

It is stated, in Les Mondes, that one daunted, however, he continued his ex- of her delineation of "Elsa." periments, and within the past ten years has discovered a method of converting such refuse into velvet of the fines quality. He now carries on this indus whose sole business is to buy the silk cost nearly $3,000,000.

General Breckinridge was a warm friend of Horace Greeley during the lat- indiscriminate slaughter is made of birds Whether it is a natural result of ter years of the philosopher's life. On of all kinds and characters. This view champagne atmosphere, and strawberries and desirable machine for general and Store of Mains & Bro. Call and see Heister Clymer of his obligations to Mr. Greeley, General Breckinridge said: "After the late unfortunate war between of any great moment. Even if the social conditions of San Francisco at the Universal Exposition in Vienna love; you cannot recall the arrow shot the Northern and Southern sections of birds themselves cannot reach the vine which inspires the women of that seathe United States, you know I was com-louse, it is suggested that other kinds of girt peninsula with a perennial yearn-cellence. Machines will be delivered at A woman is a fortress which can always be taken—by him who knows how ways be taken—by him who knows how Paris, cheerless, friendless, homeless, leave the vine in a weakened condition lawyers who have been shot, or shot at, leave the vine in a weakened condition lawyers who have been shot, or shot at, leave the vine in a weakened condition lawyers who have been shot, or shot at, leave the vine in a weakened condition lawyers who have been shot, or shot at, leave the vine in a weakened condition lawyers who have been shot, or shot at, leave the vine in a weakened condition lawyers who have been shot, or shot at, leave the vine in a weakened condition lawyers. Man's vanity is irritated by defeat ter from Horace Greeley. It was filled nd consoled with a rupture. Woman's with the most tender expressions of regard and sympathy, and urged me to re-Ask not a woman's heart; she has ut one and she may give it. Of all turn to my home. 'Come back,' he has invented an india-rubber life-saving with them; and now behold an attempt with the content fatal presents a woman's heart is the wrote; go to your own beloved Kentucky; suit, which, he claims, will make the to take off W. H. L. Barnes. Old woof the South and your country; and I will be responsible for your safety, and assure your immunity from molestation or arrest. Now I submit to you, Mr. The ordinary position he assumes is a sitting one, but, tiring of all sorts of lawyers, as if there existed.

They say that the number of aged women murder old lawyers, and all sorts of women precipitate themselves upon all sorts of lawyers, as if there existed. aid in restoring the shattered fortunes happy possessor as safe on sea as on the morning, knocked over the baby, kissed

KING LUDWIG OF BAYARIA.

Wagner's Royal Worshipper-His Freaks and Fancies. Writing from Munich, the correspond by Meissonier, or any other of our bat- and, to me, attractive manner. The opera between Arlington and Fairfax Courtintense enchantment for the young honse, a balloon was sent up every even- King, with his nature full of poetry and above the primeval trees which sur- queen bore me the genius of my life, across the deep blue lake came on "The emy their provisions. At the same moment a strain of military music is heard to defend at Hohenschwangau the his-

The dwellers on Lake Starnberg will coming out of the wood that surrounds also tell you that at times, years ago. them. This throng arranges itself, and they have seen a bont out on the waters, forms in battalions. The music passes and have heard the "Swan Song," or the sciously tends to perform many unnatural frenchman a scheme for mitigating, and al facial movements, which in time the long run probably averting, the evils in front of the ranks with that peculiar charming "Athmest du Nicht," sung by march which the English call the 'goose some mysterious singer to some equally causes a divergence between the two caused by thus trining with the peace sides of the face. Besides, the head, of Europe. His plan also has the merit State. These flags are dipped, the officers winter garden at the top of the royal wind and weather. Suppose a person were to sit constantly at a window, so of those who, on the other hand, adturning one side to the cooler atmost voctate 'a resort to arbitration.' Under the cooler atmost voctate 'a resort to arbitration.' Under the cooler atmost voctate 'a resort to arbitration.' for it is not an alarm nor a prelude of a that hang lovingly over the water, on phere out of doors, and the other toward a hot stove—the result would be a two- ing and arbitration; plenty of both. He march forward which has brought them whose surface swans float dreamily about thus together, but the regular evening hither and thither-shorewards sometimes, at the beck of their royal master who has chosen them as his emblematic himself as the sole spectator. A very selfish procedure, you will say, but then he could afford it. A story is told about two. English ladies who once had the two English ladies who once had the several weeks for an opportunity to hear lic halls are complete traps, from which a terror-stricken audience would be unable to escape without loss of life and if his Majes;y would not permit them to the Baltimore City Council, asking for the enactment of an ordinance requirthe enactment of an ordinance requiring the doors of public buildings to be hereafter erected to have their doors hung so as to open outwardly. The ladies were surprised at seeing one of the royal carriages stop before their hung so as to open outwardly. The the royal carriages stop before their Gazette properly says that the ordinance house; a footman was announced, and should not only require such a precauinformed them that he had orders buildings, but in those already in use; then, but as often as they wished, during their stay in Munich. They were shown to seats immediately below, but out of sight of the royal box, and were afterwards frequent visitors. Well, in these fancies the King annoyed nobody, and of the wealthiest English velvet manu- he rewarded the singers in a very handfacturers, Mr. Listar, worked his way to some manner. The tenor, Nachbauer: success by years of patient labor in the finest delineator of "Lohengrin" on search of a way to utilize silk rags. He the German stage, received from him a began by buying up all such waste at silver shield, with an emblematic device less than a cent a pound, and up to the of the swan carved upon it, and a beautyear 1864 he had expended the im- iful silver helmet, likewise crowned less efforts to find a process. Nothing Stehle received many gifts appreciative entering into the crusade, and that an form.

The Destruction of Small Birds.

A New Yorker named J. B. Stoner smoke, though, if he prefer to dream in the mustard. The consequence was that ate ranks, and still "wears the gray." immortality begins here, and heaven him till he couldn't breathe and then, to the peaceful shade, he can hoist a silk

An Irishman called at a drug store t

The Wool Clip of 1875.

It seems to be generally admitted that | Just eighteen centuries ago, the morn the wool clip of California, Oregon and ing beams had shed a purple light o'er Texas this season will be larger than Olivet, and tipped with gold the stately delaine and combing wools.

ses the capital is intended."

We do not see that any considerable Western Rural.

Don't Mortgage the Farm.

gage. No matter how promising the woman answered: "None, my Lord?" peculation may be, how large a reand Jesus answered: "Neither will I urn the investment may offer, don't We know of but one good cause for a mortgage on the homestead-hunger. The rate of interest to be paid for current expenses, will eat up the best tae King to have the Wagnerian operas frequently given in the theater with for it. Unexpected expenses, losses of shamed of breaking out into ye is himself as the sole spectator. A very crops, poor markets, and one cause and wickedness, honor of being invited to one of these pay the interest, and as times get better wherein shall be put, to remain remarkable rehearsals. They had waited meet the principal. Thousands and tens amined and punished, any one breaking the Sabbath." For the prevention of rency continues, and we are to reach that will guard, protect and make monwill not be needed, if it does not all the ed by an hour-glass standing on more reason for having the home clear want the home for the children, don't in certain seasons of the year, every per. John might capture them if they venson who can hire or borrow a musket, tured to remain any longer on the plat-

The Test of Superiority.

one occasior, speaking to the Hon. of Dr. Turrel is strengthened by the fact all the year round, we know not, but it that in America, where the Phylloxera has become evident that there is some out of repair, its work is the best, as was originated, its ravages have never been thing in the air, in the soil, or in the shown by the first premiums award and more liable to destruction by paras- by females in San Francisco, is really appalling. Crittenden, McDermott and Cobb are among the most prominent cases, but the calendar indeed, abounds green (excepting the greenhorns just coming into the country). Our garden had been sown around the fencing with mustard profusely, and within fortyhimself with lunch, and then views the broad expanse of blue above and blue below through blue clouds of tobacco below through blue clouds of tobacco below through blue clouds of tobacco call and see them.

The negotiations with the Indians having proved a failure, trouble is ant-

Charity to the Fallen-A Picture.

NUMBER 9

those of last year and that the average cedars o'erhanging the brow of Lebanon. quality, except perhaps of the California Within Jerusalem's Temple sat a man quality, except perhaps of the California wools, is also improved.—These wools come into market before those of the rest of the country. The clip of Kentucky is said to be of very good quality. The very great injury to sheep by dogs has done much to decrease the clips in Within Jerusalem's Temple sat a man with irranguil brow and kindly mien, teaching the multitude. He taught a prictor tenders his thanks to his patrons for part to the same; and with pleasure informs the traveling public that he is prepared to, and will, furnish as good accommodations for man and beast a man with tranquil brow and kindly mien, teaching the multitude. He taught a new and winning doctrine, 'twas of love and fitted up for the hotel business, the prepared to the same; and with pleasure informs the traveling public that he is prepared to, and will, furnish as good accommodations for man and beast as any hotel in central Ohio.

April 17, 1873. has done much to decrease the clips in meek but saddened face, a more than ing country, covered with trees, dotted years of age he witnessed a performance sell early in the season will realize as ing toward the Nazarene the Pharisees those who hold longer. Notwithstand- were bearing a guilty woman to be ading the severe winter, there has been judged for sin. They charged her with omparatively little disease, among beinous crime, "caught in the act, sheep, and they came through the win- the punishment whereof was death by ter in at least usually good condition. Moses' law; what says thou, Master There have been very considerable exclaimed the Pharisees. But Jesus Newark, Ohio. importations of Australian and South answered naught. And as His meek wools, which have prevented the small eyes wandered from the multitude to stocks from becoming entirely exhaust. the poor woman standing in the midst. ed. The trade is quiet in all depart. He pited her. She had been fair, but ments. There is the most demand for passion marred the innocence of better days and left the lines of sorrow on her Farmers have often been advised brow, albeit, the grace of Judah's dark against the policy of crowding all or eyed daughter hung round her still in WILL nearly all the wool clip of the year on clouded beauty. A moment hence her the market at once. It is a little comi- cheek was blanched to Parian whitened cial to read earnest appeals in the New through fear of those who sought her York Economist to wool buying, to life, but now in presence of that pure avoid advancing the price of wool by and holy man, her womanly shame and too much competitive boying. It holds consciousness of sin returned, and the that "the wisest policy in the purchase rich crimson tide mantled her neck and OBDERS solicited for House, Sign and French works to be a purchase of wools is to buy as you go and take face until it mocked her robe of Tyrian the chances of a raise or fall in the price dye; and as the changing hues quivered Poom in Johnson's Block, over "Frees of the staple according to the demand o'er her temples, betokening emotion's and prices obtained for manufactured struggle her bosom rose and fell goods. By this means interest is saved tumultuously, and she sobbed with a and the producer ceases to be a rival new felt penttence. Then Jesus stoonbidder against his own interest. By this ed and wrote upon the ground, but the ans he can use his money for the multitude, impatient, clamored for indement on the woman's onilt and Jesus said: "He that is without sin among advance over last year's prices is to be you, let him first cast a stone at her. expected, and there certainly can be no and again he stooped and wrote upon good reason for a decline in prices __ the ground; and they seeing thereon the record of their sins went away, one by one, until the woman was left standing there with Jesus; and then He said: in New Lexington, where orders are respectful.
"Woman, where are thy accusors?" workman warrants the expectation of satisfact condemn thee; go and sin no more."

Sabbath-day Laws. In 1646 they made a law in Massachu borrowed money, added to taxes and the setts, that if any one "comtemptuously sweet tones of "Beloved Swan," from the opera which you are about to hear in at the time it was borrowed three times high, on a lecture-day, with a paper A lew years ago it was the custom of the amount loaned, could not, in many Wanton Gospeller, written in capital

In 1677 the general court ordered of thousands of dollars released from the profanation of the Sabbath, and dis manufacturing enterprises of the East orders on Saturday nights, "by horse are now offering in every town of the and carts passing late out of ye town of West. If the contraction of the curthe farms upon which they are placed. man, without good account of the necessity of his business. Officers called "black staff about two foote long, tipt at clothes ragged, and the implements old the noses of drowsy sinners, while the and worn, than to sign a mortgage, the pates of unruly boys. In this manwhich after years of worry and suffering ner was the congregation kept attentive Causes the home to go to the neurer. during the sermon, which generall Wait, if prosperity comes, the mortgage from debt. Mothers and fathers, if you When There's no More West to Go

Speaking of the prevalent Western mmigration fever, the St. Louis Repub. J. C. Curran's, at from 15 cents to $2 00 can observes: Moving West is an American business we have been engaged in it for a hun-Meadows Pintes Winnemucca the other dred years. But what will we do when duce taken in exchange for goods or day, accompanied by three wives, two there is no longer a West to emigrate to? work at the Clothing Store of Mains & mense sum of over $1,300,000 in fruit- with the legendary bird. Fraulein of whom are much younger than the That time has nearly arrived. When Bro. A variety of goods and trimmings Chief. At the depot he was accosted it comes, the growth of the country will on hand suitable for Mens' Youths' and by a passenger of an inquiring turn of thereafter react toward its center. Ohio, Children's clothing, good and cheap mind, who asked him if the oldest wo- Indiana, Illinois, Virginia, West Virman was not his wife and the others his ginia, Kentucky and Tennessee can be daughters. John indignantly replied:

"No; me heap big Indian; all the same try will grow in a different way. Great

"A control of the same try will grow in a different way. Great try will grow in a different way. Great try will grow in a different way. try in England, in an establishment that the rapid spread of the Phylloxera which employs 4,000 workmen, and hungare grapevine louse, in France, is due more women. Mormon pretty good; 'Merican women and cities will be built up; our elsewhere. which employs 4,000 workmen, and hundred grapevine louse, in France, is due more dreds of travelers are also employed than anything else, to the rapid exterm. ination of the small birds of the count the conver-ation looked with surprise at grained products will be needed for waste, and this they do in all parts of try. It is well know that a regular disthe globe. The factory is said to have charge of guns is heard all over France ed the train, as if afraid that Captain to suiverste to " to emigrate to.'

ASTONISHING .- The progress made by the WilsonShuttle Sewing Machine. simeres, of the newest styles, for pants inventive skill has been taxed to its utthrough the Company's Branch House They send an elegant catalogue and

They say that the number of aged the latest style, just received by Walker men who are in traning for the Centen- & Russeil. known. Eazzled by the honors which pair of their first-class fine Boots war-are bestowed upon centenarians, many ranted to fit the foot and please the eye. prize-fighters, into a regular course of now and see that you don't get sold.

At St. Albans, Vt., on Sunday, Clifton icinated in the Black Hills if the whites S. Weeks attempted to kill Henry C had comparatively very few on our farm. I presume I could have this testimony corroborated by some of the old citizens of Montreal."—[St. Paul Discription of Montreal."]—[St. Paul Discription of Montreal."—[St. Paul Discription of Montreal."]—[St. Paul Discription of Montreal."—[St. Paul Discription of Montreal."]—[St. Paul Discription of PROFESSIONAL, &c.

SNOW FORK COAL AND MINING CO. H. C. GREINEB, Sec. J. M. BROWN, Pres

Office on North Columbus street. WHERE can be seen the plat of Mura WHERE can be seen the plat of Murray City, and can viso be obtained any meeted information relative to the purchase of lots in the same. All communications relative to the purchase of lots in said town, address to the President, all other communications address to the Secretary of the Company.

N. B. A Hellroad will be built and running through Murray City this season, connecting with the Columbus & Hocking Valley Railroad at or near Nelsonville. Now is the time to secure bargains in town lots.

RUSSELL HOUSE, Opposite Weaver's Store, Main street SOMERSET, OHIO.

AMERICAN HOUSE,

Near Public Square, SOMERSET, OHIO. WILLIAM HARNER, PROPRIETOR.

A CCOMMODALIONS, first-class, and terms.

Kestaurant, where the traveler can have his wants for anything in that line supplied. The statles of this House are commodation of a c

May 1, 1873, wind Pennsylvania House. S. T. OYLER, Prop'r.

puble bills. (

P. H. BINCKLEY, Counselor at Law, &c., SOMERSET, OHIO, W II.L practice in the Courts of Ohio gen-erally, and Perry County particularity. Particular attention given to Soldiers' Clair r Bounty under the late lise.

J. O. SKINNER. PAINTER

Office, Somerset, Ohio. April 17, 1873. vini H. C. GREINER. RESIDENT DENTIST,

THANKS the people of Perry county for their past patronage, and will recrit the same is future by being prepared with all the modern appliances for doing the best work at fair prices. Office up stairs, two doors westof J. C. Curran's Jewelry Store.

TALLS attention of the public to the fact that Monuments and Tomb Stones

LEWIS STRICKLER.

Hath none condemned thee?" and the ry jobs and prices PARK HOUSE. East side of the Public Squar

NEWARK, OHIO.

G. W. YEARLEY, FROPRISTO 63 Good Sample Rooms on First Floor, "was

T. SPENCER STILLMAN. OTARY PUBLIC. Office in Mathew J. H. WILLIARD, M. D.

PHYSICIAN AND SUBGEON, Office one J. D. M'KINNEY, M. D. DHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, tenders

professional services to the citizens of Som t and vicinity. Office on South Calumbu et, Somerset, Ohio. vina C. J. SKINNER, M. D., SOMERSET, OHIO, TENDERS his services as Physician and Sor seen to citizens of Somerset and vicinity. E. R. MAGRUDER, M. D.

HIS professional services can be secured desired. Office at Drug Store onSouth Co S. S. DOLLISON, M. D.,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, TENDERS his Professional services to the cit-izens of Somerset and vicinety. Office and distinction on East Main street, two doors cost of the Reformed I church. January 9, 1874.

Money Matters are Close.

And I mean to sell $1,000 worth of goods in the next 40 days, at less figure

The Farmers' Insurance Co., of Knox County, pays for live stock if killed by ightning anywhere on the farm.

Go to Skinner's Drug store, if you wish to get nice patterns of Wall-paper and Window-curtains. They sell for 100 different kinds of pocket books at se; inter- charge. Prices of all goods lower than brushes of all kinds, garden and flower-

A variety of light-colored, fancy cas

their own make, warranted to give sat

A fine assortment of Whips of every description may be found at Georg Nichols'.

A fine lot of men's and boys' shoes, of

J. C. Curran is the sole agent in this